Post Title: Food Technology Technician

Hours of work: 25 hours per week, 8.00am – 1.00pm
Term time plus one week

Salary: Scale D (£16,231 - £17,372) pro rata

Contract: One term temporary contract

To commence: As soon as possible

Stalham High School is a small rural school located approximately 15 miles from Norwich. You would be joining the school at an exciting time; over the last year improvement has been considerable and the school is making good progress towards achieving its goal of being sustainably effective. On 1st January 2015, Stalham High School joined the North Norfolk Academy Trust as an academy. NNAT consists of Stalham High School, Sheringham High School and Antingham and Southrepps and Gresham Village Primary Schools and we are excited about the close relationship all three schools are developing and the benefits that will entail.

A Food Technology Technician is required to ensure that a safe, effective and efficient technical service is provided for the use of students and teaching staff. We are looking for an enthusiastic individual with good interpersonal skills to join our school. A genuine interest in working with young people and supporting their learning is essential.

Stalham High School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

How to apply

An application form is available on the school website. Alternatively, contact Miss Emma James (PA to the Head of School) on 01692 580150 or email ejames@stalhamhigh.co.uk. Visits from prospective applicants are welcomed.

This post is likely to come under the requirements of the Childcare (Disqualification) 2009 Regulations and the successful applicant will be required to complete a declaration form to establish whether they are disqualified under these regulations.

Closing date: Friday 5th January 2018

Interviews: w/c Monday 8th January 2018

The successful candidate will have to meet the requirements of the person specification in order to be offered the post and will be subject to an enhanced DBS check. We welcome applications regardless of age, disability, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion or belief. Only applications submitted on the school's application form will be considered. Your principal place of work will be Stalham High School but you may be required to work at other sites across the Trust. Throughout your employment with the North Norfolk Academy Trust, you must ensure that you are able to make the necessary travel arrangements in order for you to fulfil the requirements of your post and you must also ensure that your motor insurance provides you with cover for business use. Stalham High School is committed to the protection and safety of its students.
